FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EASTERN HOSTS VISITORS FROM TAIWAN

CHARLESTON, IL.--Eastern Illinois University will host visitors from a university in Taiwan Tuesday (Feb. 5).

Shou-Shan Chang, president of National Kaohsiung Normal University, Kaohsiung, Taiwan Republic of China, and two colleagues will meet with Eastern President Stan Rives and other key administrators to discuss a faculty exchange program the Chinese university has had with Eastern for more than a decade and to continue strengthening the cooperative relationship between the two universities.

VISITORS

The public is invited to a reception honoring the delegation from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., Tuesday, in the Department of Educational Psychology and Guidance, Room 214 Buzzard Building. Anyone interested in Taiwan and the exchange program is invited to attend. The reception is sponsored by Eastern's College of Education.

Hsin-Fan Fu, special assistant to the president of the Chinese university, and Kuo-Bin Tsai, dean of general affairs, will join Chang, who has been on the Kaohsiung faculty for 20 years; first as professor, then dean of academic affairs, and later president.

Under the program, Kaohsiung faculty come to Eastern to complete their master's and specialist degrees.
